F. RECOMMENDATIONS

Try to come prepared for every class by having completed the assigned readings. Take notes while you read, as well as in class, and make sure you understand the significance of the events under consideration. Class attendance is extremely important. The contents given in class time (together with the commentaries made on the readings and maps assigned) will help to understand the significance of the events under consideration.

Classes will not be repeated if you have missed any. You will have to get the notes from another student.

If you ever have ANY problems, consult with your instructor.

G. BIBLIOGRAPHY

There is no textbook for this course. Your instructor will give copies and handouts to you. The student will use a course pack including class notes.

There will not be a textbook. Copies of translated texts, gathered both from the Muslim and Christian side, which will be used for discussion and examination, will be handed out during the course. Maps and Arabic technical terms are included for a better comprehension of the subject. The pack is available in administration.

Students have access to the public library services in Sevilla, especially the Infanta Elena library located in the Avda. Maria Luisa s/n, and the central library of the University of Sevilla in C/ San Fernando n°4.
